

The Mark Drama audience reviews

IT WAS amazing. Funny, tragic, fast-paced and deeply moving. Full of authenticity and grit. Kudos to cast. Al

WHAT AN amazing production. Every scene was well interpreted. There was levity interspersed with drama. A wonderful way to encourage one to read this book again. Powerful, emotive, amusing, touching – filed all areas, ticked all the boxes. Most enjoyable. Lynda

THANK YOU so much for all the time and effort you have put in to provide such a wonderful performance of Mark's gospel. I loved that it was dotted with humour. It ran so smoothly and Jesus' words were so powerful. He truly is the Son of God! Even though his words were spoken 2000 years ago – how real they are for us today. I loved every minute. Praise God. Anon

WONDERFUL representation of the gospel. Very good acting. Thank you for blessing us today. Tochi

EVERYONE DID so incredibly well! You all need to be so proud of yourselves. Especially Nathan, Mike, Emmy and Eugenie. You guys had such incredible emotions. Sarah

THANK YOU cast for all the energy, time resources, that put into the Mark Drama. It was such a strong, convicting and encouraging performance. Thank you for serving in this way. I have been blessed by it. Adelle

WELL DONE, to all actors. I count it as a privilege that I was allowed to be part of the audience. I looked around thinking, 'Why did I not invite more people?' There were not many chairs empty. Seeing the eyes, the reactions of the kids, particularly, scared, moved at moments of the play. This performance will leave an indelible mark on their minds.

You may have been nervous. It is such an intimate setting which adds to the effect of this play. I only wish others could see your performance. Granted, you have your final performance tomorrow. A much larger audience needs to see this! Well done good and faithful servants. Drew
